

The North Carolina Partnership for Children, Inc.

Evidence-Based and Evidence-Informed Programs and Practices Checklist Template (not required)

In response to several requests, we are offering this checklist to assist your partnership in reviewing activities to determine if they meet the evidence-based/evidence informed definitions as defined by the NCPC board. When an activity has multiple components, it is best to document each one. Please feel free to use whichever checklist is appropriate for each program.

Local Partnership Name:

FY:

Activity Name:

Model Name:

Service Provider:

Items to Consider:

Evidence-Based Programs

_____ Is there documented research showing that your program repeatedly and consistently demonstrated desirable outcomes through application of scientific research methods?
(copy in file)

_____ Is your program following the model as researched, including all the components such as frequency, duration, target population, staff qualifications, and/or training, etc?

_____ Do you have a strong current logic model?

_____ Is this program listed as evidence-based from at least one source that rates evidence – based programs?

Other Comments:

The North Carolina Partnership for Children, Inc.

Local Partnership Name:

Activity Name:

Service Provider:

FY:

Model Name:

Items to Consider:

Evidence-Informed Programs

_____ Are there qualitative studies and finding from basic research that supports your practice and/or multiple practices or components? (copy(ies) in file)

_____ Do you have a strong current logic model?

_____ Is there history of this practice demonstrating positive results (outcomes)? (copy in file)

_____ Is practice implemented in accordance with written guidelines? (guidelines in file)

_____ Is this practice rated as “Promising” or “Emerging” from at least one source that rates evidence-based programs? (copy in file)
i.e. Infant Health and Development Program has been rated “Promising” by Promising Practices Network – <http://www.promisingpractices.net/program.asp?programid=136>

Other comments: